

Nursing, Midwifery and Allied
Health Professions Research Unit

British Aphasiology Society Research in Progress

Tuesday 19th April 2011
Glasgow Caledonian University

Theme: Aphasia Therapy – Rehabilitation or Management?

- Commissioning speech and language therapy for persons with aphasia
(Prof. Pam Enderby, School of Health and Related Research, University of Sheffield)
- Does short-term memory training in aphasia improve short-term memory and sentence comprehension? (Dr. Christos Salis, University of Reading)
- Visual impairment following stroke - clinical practice, evidence of effectiveness and implications for aphasia rehabilitation and management
(Dr. Alex Pollock, NMAHP Research Unit, Glasgow Caledonian University)
- Conversation-based therapy for aphasia: How do couples change their behaviour
(Fiona Johnson, University College London)
- Eye-tracking and syntactic deficits in Broca's Aphasia
(Leigh Fernandez, Cognition and Communication Research Centre, Northumbria University)
- Mechanisms of post-stroke language recovery: Evidence from Spanish and Basque
(Dr. Vanja Kljajevic, Instituto Gerontologico Matia, San Sebastian, Spain)
- Speech and language therapy for aphasia – delivering evidence of effectiveness
(Dr. Marian Brady, NMAHP Research Unit, Glasgow Caledonian University)

Registration: If you are interested in attending this meeting, please contact: Kim Stewart kim.stewart@gcu.ac.uk for a registration form. The standard delegate rate is £10 (student delegate rate is £8).