

BAS Therapy Symposium 9th & 10th September 2010

The next Therapy Symposium will be hosted jointly by Newcastle University and NHS Newcastle and North Tyneside Community Health. The event will be held at the Research Beehive at Newcastle University which is located in the city centre.

The Symposium concentrates on what clinicians actually do in treatment. It is a unique opportunity to hear about therapy approaches in detail and to take part in lively debates.

Extend your conference on the Thursday evening with a buffet at the Pitcher and Piano on the famous Newcastle Quayside to relax with colleagues, enjoy the food and the fantastic views.

A new and exciting format...

This Therapy Symposium will have a new and exciting format with themed sessions on treatment methods and extended panel discussion to give everyone the opportunity to debate therapy approaches in detail. There will also be dedicated poster sessions on various therapy approaches encouraging direct exchange of ideas in the treatment of aphasia.

Call for papers ....

The call for papers is now open and will close on 31st March 2010. For more information about submitting a paper or poster presentation at the Symposium, please contact Janet Moss at: aphasia@ncl.ac.uk.

Presenters can choose to do a very detailed presentation of 1 hour or 50 minutes or shorter presentations of 30 minutes. There is also the opportunity for poster presentations.

Book now .....

To register for the symposium, you need to be a member of BAS. Please direct membership enquiries to: membership-secretary@bas.org.uk. Annual membership fees are £15 by standing order, £20 by cheque & student rate £10.

To book your place at the event, please go to the NCORE website:
<http://www.ncoreadmin.co.uk/>

The event costs £115 for 2 day symposium (standard rate) with a reduced rate of £60 for students. Day rates are available at £70 per day. The social event at the Pitcher & Piano costs £15.

When you have registered for the conference, please go to www.NewcastleGateshead.com/BAS2010 if you require accommodation.