

Research Update Meeting

Friday April 27th 2018

Please email r.hatchard@bham.ac.uk to register. This event is free, but attendees must be BAS members. Join on the day or via: <http://www.bas.org.uk/index.php/membership/>

09.00 - 09.35	Registration
09.35 – 09.45	Welcome
09.45 - 10.15	Face-to-face communication in aphasia Willemijn Doedens (University of Reading)
10.15 – 10.45	Accessibility of Social Media Apps for People with Aphasia – a User Study Abi Roper, Brian Grellmann, Stephanie Wilson, Jane Marshall & Timothy Neate (City, University of London)
10.45 – 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 11.30	Phonological Cueing Therapy (PCT) in Tonal Languages: Salience of Onset, Rime, Syllable and Tone for a Mandarin-English Bilingual Carline Tan Ching Teng, Sajlia Binte Jalil & Susan Rickard Liow (National University of Singapore)
11.30 – 12.15	Workshop 1. Beyond the word: New approaches to sentence processing in aphasia Rachel Hatchard (University of Birmingham)
12.15 – 13.15	Lunch break
13.15 – 14.00	Workshop 2. Applying for BAS research funding Lotte Meteyard (BAS Chair; University of Reading)
14.00 – 14.30	Delivering group support for people with aphasia through a virtual communication environment Jane Marshall ¹ , Anna Caute ¹ , Niamh Devane ¹ , Anita Patel ² , Abi Roper ¹ , Richard Talbot ¹ , Stephanie Wilson ¹ & Celia Woolf ¹ . (City, University of London ¹ ; Anita Patel Health Economics Consulting Ltd.)
14.30 – 14.45	Coffee break
14.45 – 15.15	Creating a framework to underpin discourse assessment and management in aphasia Madeleine Pritchard & Lucy Dipper (City, University of London)	14.30-15.15: Parallel (extra) event for students: Careers in Speech and Language Therapy. Louise Lander & Nicholas Cox (Moor Green Out-patient Brain Injury Rehabilitation Service)
15.15 – 15.45	An asset-based approach for stroke survivors with aphasia and their families: promoting and sustaining well-being in the long-term. Ciara Shiggins ¹ , Fergus Gracey ¹ , Ian Duffy ² & Simon Horton ¹ (University of East Anglia ¹ , Person with aphasia and expert by experience ²)
15.45 – 15.55	Close	