

The logo for the British Aphasiology Society (BAS) features the letters 'BAS' in a bold, yellow, serif font, set against a dark blue oval background.

British Aphasiology Society

International Biennial Conference
9, 10, 11 September 2020
Newcastle University, UK

Call for Abstracts

Abstracts are invited for the British Aphasiology Society 2020. Abstracts are welcomed on any area relating to the study and management of aphasia resulting from stroke, brain injury, dementia or other conditions.

Keynote speakers

Deborah Hersh

Edith Cowan University, Perth, Australia

David Howard

Newcastle University, UK

Beth Jefferies

York University, UK

Brenda Rapp

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, USA

Abstract information

Abstracts should be submitted via the following form (click here) no later than Friday 27th March 2020. Abstracts must be structured, using the following headings: background, method, results, discussion (or similar). The word limit is 400 words and authors can cite up to 4 references (excluded from word count). Abstracts must not contain figures or tables. Abstracts will be reviewed anonymously.

Authors will be notified by May 2020.

For enquiries please contact: aphasia@ncl.ac.uk
Julie Morris, Janet Webster, Christos Salis, Frauke Buerk
(Conference Organising Committee)

Please note that all attendees (including presenters) should be members of the British Aphasiology Society. For information about the Society, the conference and how to register with BAS, please visit the BAS Website or the Conference Website