

Living with Aphasia Conference March 2020

There is a conference for people with aphasia.

Families, friends, aphasia and stroke organisations, and health professionals are also invited.

The conference will be held in Coventry in England.

People with aphasia have helped to plan the conference and will chair the sessions.

The information will be presented in a way that is easier for people with aphasia.

There will be support from therapists and students to help people to join in.

We will discuss ways that people can 'live well with aphasia'.

- Technology and aphasia, learn and have a go
 - EVA Park, virtual reality world for aphasia
 - Cue speak – therapy exercises for aphasia
- New online resources for supporting people with aphasia to Live Well
- The new national Communication Access symbol, increasing awareness of aphasia – what is happening and how you can get involved
- Sharing what's happening in aphasia groups and around the world
- Research – how it happens, what we have learned recently, a chance to get involved in discussions groups to influence research
- Travelling when you have aphasia.
- The effects of aphasia on families and friendship groups

This is a wonderful opportunity

- Do something new, develop confidence, be inspired
- Learn from each other and share ideas
- Find out about new services and ways to help
- Meet people with aphasia from around the world!

Please encourage and support people to attend.
